COUNTRY NEWS.

Reading, March 13. Last Saturday John Straboury alias Ambrose Straunge for Murder, and James Brown for returning from Transportation, were both hanged here. Straunge was afterwards hung in Chains on Coldborne Hill in Tilehouse-heath, but James Brown was taken away by his Friends, in order to be interred at Kingclear among his Relations. They were both very Penitent, and behaved in a manner becoming Persons in their unhappy Circumstances.

Straunge was born in Oxfordshire, and Brown in Hampshire, both were bred to Husbandry, and were the Issue of very honest Parents. Brown has left behind him a Wife, an honest industrious Woman, and one Child; but Straunge was never married. Neither of them were above 25 Years of Age.

One Day last Week the Bones of a Man, supposed to have been murdered, were found in a Pit adjoining to Hog Coppice, in the Parish of Bradfield: These Bones were first discovered by a Labourer, who while his Companion went to Dinner was walking to and fro, and spying a Crab-tree growing in the Pit, from whence he thought he might cut two or three Swingles, he went into the Pit, when, to his Surprise, he saw a Hat lying underneath the Bushes. He soon laid hold on it, and perceived that it covered the Skull of a Man, and that the whole Skeleton lay beneath the Bush. The poor Man was startled at the Sight, and went and called others to see it, who took up the Bones and carried them to an adjoining Alehouse. It is said when they took him up, the Bones of his Feet were in his Shoes, and that there was a Pair of Silver Buckles in the Straps.

Since this Accident, a Story goes current, that about 12 Months ago a Person came into an Alehouse hard by, and enquired for a Lodging: The Landlord of the House being then upon moving, had pack'd up his Beds, and therefore could not conveniently comply with his Request: But John Wingfield being then in the House offered him a Bed, which the Stranger accepted, but was never afterwards heard of.

Gloucester, March 11. Last Wednesday the Assizes ended here, when the four following Persons received Sentence of Death, viz. Daniel Grastock, for breaking open the House of William Gilbert of the Parish of St. Philip and Jacob, and stealing a Desk, wherein were two Pair of Silver Buckles, &c. George Read and Thomas Scovell, for breaking the House of Richard Simmons of Barrington, and stealing a Hat, a Pair of Shoes, a Mourning Ring, and some Money; and William Chiswell, for stealing a Stone Colt from Thomas Grace of High-Clare in the County of Southampton. The two last are Reprieved; and the other two order'd for Execution on Friday next.

Six were cast for Transportation, viz. Robert Brooks and William Drew, for stealing Cloth from Henry Pyrke of Stroud and others, and two Pieces of Drugges from Collurn in Wilts, in the Possession of Charles Gardiner; John Williams, for stealing two Silver Spoons, &c. Stephen Wirts, and Joan Wildy, for stealing Money; and Charles Radcly, for stealing a Brass Kettle.

Three were burnt in the Hand, viz. Samuel Halliday, for Manslaughter; Mary Smith, for stealing 37 s. 6 d. from Mr. William Viner of this City, her Master; and Emanuel Francis, for stealing a He-Afs. One was order'd to be whipp'd, viz. Anne Bradley, for stealing a Gown, Shift, &c.

Thomas Ricketts, John Champion, John Thomas alias Evan Prothero, and William Turner, condemn'd the last Assizes, were order'd to be transported for 14 Years.

We hear from Salisbury, that at the Assizes there, the two following Persons were capitally Convicted, viz. John Edward, for breaking open the House of Jeremiah Jenkins of Castlecomb in Wilts, and stealing 27 l. in Money, four Gold Rings, &c. And James Byres alias Wheeler, for breaking open the Shop of Grace Ferret of Bradford, and stealing several Pieces of Silver Coin, &c. The former of whom was removed by Habeas Corpus from Monmouth, and the latter from Gloucester.

Northampton, March 13. On Tuesday last about One o'Clock in the Afternoon, a Fire broke out in a Farm House at Easton-Maudit in this County, which in a few Hours consumed three Dwelling Houses, besides several large Barns, Stables, and other Out-houses, with great Quantities of Corn, Hay, Implements of Husbandry, &c. to a very considerable Value: The Persons burnt out by this terrible Accident, design to ask the Assistance of the neighbouring Part of the Country in their unhappy Circumstances, being reduced to great Necessity, which 'tis hoped all good and charitable Persons will compassionately consider.

A Reprieve for five Weeks is come for Peter Butlin, who was condemn'd at our last Assizes for Horse-stealing and House-breaking.

The Rev. Dr. Samuel Baker, next Brother to Daniel Baker, Esq; of Pen in Bucks, Rector of Settring and Dunnington near York (and Chaplain to his Grace the Duke of Bridgewater) succeeds the Hon. and Rev. Dr. Finch, lately deceased, as Residentiary of that Church.

By a Select Number of Fair Dealers in MINERAL WATERS.

A Seasonable Caution to all PYRMONT and SPAU Water-Drinkers.

THERE are frequently Imported Quantities of false Waters, sold by divers Druggists and others, which may be distinguished by their having no Marks on the Bottles, or Seals on the Plugs: Whereas no Bottles are suffered to be filled at the Pyrmont Springs, without having Impressed on the Bottles, either in Whole or Part (as in the Margin) the Arms of the Prince of Waldeck, whose Country the said Spring is situated.

SO likewise the true SPA WATERS have the adjoining Impression (being the Arms of the Prince of LUXEMBOURG, in whose Country the SPA Fountains are situated) either Impressed in Glass on the Neck of the Flask, or sealed with the same in Wax on the Cap of the Glass or bottle.

Such Pyrmont or SPA Waters as are not thus distinguished are assuredly Spurious, and there are no small Quantities of such imported — which is the Reason of giving this Caution.

For the EYES,

The so-much Famed CHYMICAL LIQUOR, WHICH at once infallibly cures all

INFLAMMATION, BLOODSHOT, SORENESS and WEAKNESS of the EYES, Deductions of sharp Humours, Dimness of Sight, Specks, Films, or beginning Cataracts, and that after all other Means have fail'd, and without causing the least Trouble or Uneasiness in using.

It directly heals and cures all Manner of Soreness of the Eyes in Children or grown Persons, tho' of many Years standing, be it either of the dry, itching and smarting Kind, or moist, rheumy or watering, and whether proceeding from the Eye, or any other Distemper.

It effectually takes away all Specks, Films, or incipient Cataracts to Admiration, as also all Fleshy or Grassy, that seem to swim before the Sight; it wonderfully strengthens the Optick Nerves, comforts the Eyes, immediately removes all Dazzling and Dimness, clearing the Sight, and infallibly preserving it strong and good to exceeding old Age.

Hundreds who were so very dim-sighted, for some Years, as scarcely able to distinguish any thing, and imagin'd their Age to be the Occasion, have been perfectly and almost instantly cured by it, so as to read the smallest Print without Spectacles; and for Ophthalmies, or Sore, Bloodshot, or Rheumy Eyes, no Medicine upon Earth can come near it. Thousands of Men, Women, and Children, have been cured by it of the very worst Sort, almost upon the Spot, and Blindness been prevented in abundance who had tried all other Remedies in vain, inasmuch that it may be almost accounted a miraculous Remedy.

No Family ought to be without it, nor ever will, after they have had but one Day's Experience of its admirable Efficacy.

It is to be had only, by the Author's Appointment, at the Gentlewoman's at the Two Blue Posts in Haydon Yard in the Minories, London, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with printed Directions.
